1Q TOPICS

□ Sales: System usage fees increased due to increase in the use of "ASP Ordering System," "ASP Food Standards Database" and other systems in Japan.

□ Cost of sales: Depreciation of the existing platform, which the schedule was shortened, associated with the release of "next-generation platform" completed at the end of the previous fiscal year and software depreciation decreased substantially.

□SG&A expenses: Increase in personnel expenses due to increase in personnel (mainly new graduates) toward future business growth, etc.

TOPICS

- □ Net sales: Increase in system usage fees due to increase in the number of user companies of six businesses
- □ Cost of sales: Depreciation of the existing platform associated with the release of "next-generation platform" completes at the end of the previous fiscal year and software depreciation decreases substantially.
- □ SG&A expenses: Increase in personnel expenses due to increase in personnel (mainly new graduates) toward future business growth, etc.
- □ Operating income: Substantial increase due to increased sales and reduced costs. "ASP Sales Promotion & Ordering System" and "Cloud Service" turn profitable.

*There are no changes to the above forecasts from the planned figures in the "FY2012-FY2014 Medium-Term Management Plan" announced on February 14, 2012.

IV. Shareholders Return

Infomart considers most important to pay dividends to shareholders and the company aims for a "basic dividend payout ratio of 50% based on Infomart's non-consolidated business results" while improving operating results and strengthening financial position.

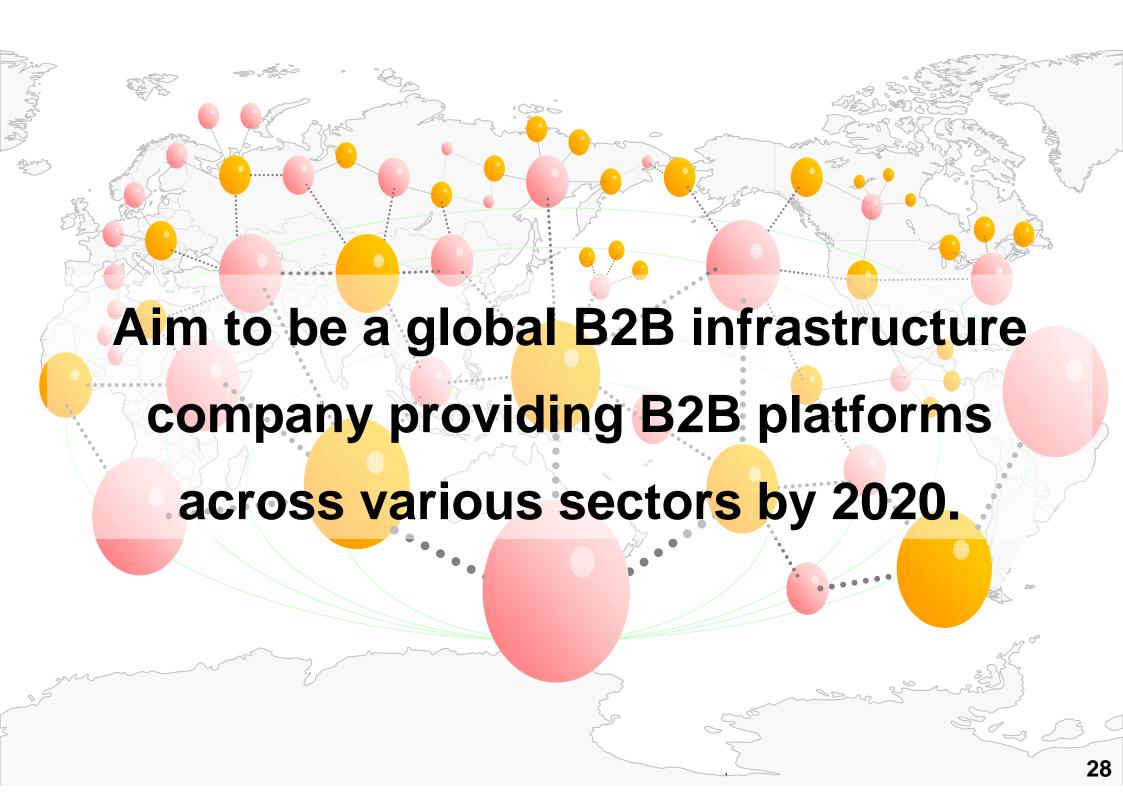

(Note) The company conducted a 200-for-1 stock split on January 1, 2013, a 2-for-1 stock split on July 1, 2013 and a 2-for-1 stock split on January 1, 2014. Dividends on the bar chart are calculated assuming that the stock splits were conducted.
